

Its 2020, yea

"Oh it's gonna be a good year!"

Nope it's leaving everybody in fear shedding tears.

While the news is going through everybody's ears and they hear what is going on.

People dying, people crying, people trying to stay calm but can't

Its 2020, yea

We also need masks on our face.

It's a disgrace, people need to embrace, we need space.

But people put up their pace and protest.

We need to stay home, and our thoughts are gray.

Its 2020, yea

People pray, I'm just saying.

But maybe if we keep masks on.

And listen to what they are saying.

Maybe we can get out.

2020
