

Facemask Dylan

Yo yo check it, they call me Facemask Dylan I'm movin through town lookin like a comic book villain

Everything is on pause waiting on a vaccine we're in a pandemic, the worlds calling it Covid-19

I hang in my room ready to climb the walls please please don't talk to me about anymore Zoom calls

My friends rap on my door wanting to play sure dude I'm down with that just stay six feet away

I like to go to restaurants to grab a bite so much so I could write you a blurb, when we get there they say no no kid you need to pick it up at the curb

I'm through with 2020, its gotten so old, take me into 2021 and back to the common cold.
